Recorded Key: C#

Intro: 6 5/7 1 4 1/3 5

Verse 1:

6                    5/7    1
Father, you're a raging fire,
4                    1/3                    5
You consume all that's in your path,
6                    5/7    1
You know my secrets, you have seen my past,
                  4                    1/3                    5
But you burnt away my shame, it could not last,

Chorus:

    1    4    1
One glimpse of your goodness,
                  4                    1
Could last me a lifetime,
                  6                    4                    5
But you chose, to pour out all you have,
    1    4    1
Just to show me that you love me,
                  4                    1
And you're never gonna leave,
                  6    4                    5
I can trust in who you say you are,

Verse 2:

Father your kindness has saved me,
You paid my debt so I could be set free,
You healed my sickness and gave me joy for mourning,
I was blind but now I see,

Bridge:

6                    5/7                    1
I know you can do it, I know you can do it, I know you can do it,
                  4                    1/3                    2    5
Though the road ahead seems so hard to bear,
6                    5                    1
I know you can do it, I know you can do it, I know you can do it,
                  4                    1/3                    2                    2
Cause you've never let me down and your love casts out my fear,
